

Ranger Fund

December 2017

Performance Commentary

The Ranger Fund had another solid month in November, up 1.06%.

Boom Logistics announced that it was returning to profitability at its AGM, the first time it will be profitable in nearly six years. In response to this the share price rose 13% for the month. The other top performer for the fund was Redbubble, the online market place for print on demand products, which reported strong sales on Black Friday and Cyber Monday.

After strong recent performance, Macmahon Holdings, Wellcom Group and Corporate Travel Management shares traded down on no specific news.

Fund Strategy

The investment strategy of the Fund is to exploit market inefficiencies resulting from a bias to short term performance by financial market investors, through investing in a range of Australasian assets. Castle Point has broad discretion on the type and proportion of Australasian assets the Fund invests into. Given the broad investment mandate of the Fund there is no target asset allocation or investment mix. There are some restrictions and investment limits on certain assets. Refer to the Fund's current statement of investment policy and objectives.
